Soft Skill & English Speaking Program

04/07/2017

Objective of report:-

- To develop language skill among the student
- To encourage the spoken English among campus
- To eliminate the grammatical mistakes while speaking
- To develop talking skill among student

Swayam Siddhi Degree College had organized Soft Skill & English Speaking Course Program for the students in two different sessions on 04/07/2017

Attendances: - 198 Students where present during the 1st session (10.30 am to 12pm)

Attendance: - 202 Students where present during 2nd session (12.30pm to 2pm)

Important things discussed during the session

What Are Speaking Skills?

People believe that effective speaking is a natural talent. Either you have it or you don't. But this is not true. You can learn different types of speaking skills and become good at it.

You can't take speaking skills lightly, no matter how talented you are. If you speak with conviction and passion, it will help the audience relate to you, believe in you, and remember you.

There Are Three Main Aspects Of Effective Speaking:

Vocabulary

Language is an integral part of speaking skills. The words you use must suit the occasion and the audience. For example, the language you use when speaking to a friend is different from the one you use for a formal presentation

Voice

Another aspect of speaking skills in communication that is often ignored is your voice. It includes pitch, tone, and strength. How you speak signals your emotional state.

A low voice and too many pauses could denote hesitation. Clarity and volume could denote confidence. A strong and confident tone portrays conviction. People believe what you say when you deliver it in a strong voice.

You can slowly read your message aloud, making sure you pause at the appropriate places. This will help you polish your speaking style. Good orators have a tone and style which they own. It's his distinctive voice that makes Morgan Freeman a favorite Hollywood narrator.

Nonverbal

The final aspect of speaking skills is not about speaking at all. Non-verbal communication consists of body language. It includes facial expression, posture, eye contact, and hand gestures. Your body language must match your words for your address to be effective.

Your body language signals to the audience how invested you are into what you are speaking about. It shows the passion behind your words and helps draw the audience emotionally to your message and make them feel involved.

Importance for career development tips to students

Future-Proofing You're Career

In an era of automation and artificial intelligence, the one constant that will remain indispensable is human connection. Soft skills are the antidote to job displacement, as they represent uniquely human capabilities that machines cannot replicate. By investing in soft skill development, individual's future-proof their careers, making themselves invaluable contributors in an ever-changing job market

The Student Advantage

For students preparing to enter the workforce, cultivating soft skills is a strategic investment. Beyond academic achievements, employers seek candidates who can communicate effectively, collaborate seamlessly, and adapt to evolving challenges. Incorporating soft skill development into the curricula may ensure that graduates are not only technically proficient but also well-equipped for the demands of the corporate world.

Navigating the Modern Workplace

Today's workplace is characterized by diversity, remote collaboration, and cross-functional teams. Soft skills such as cultural competence, adaptability, and conflict resolution become essential tools for thriving in this environment. Professionals who can navigate these nuances emerge as leaders, fostering innovation and driving organizational success.

Teamwork and Collaboration in the Modern Workplace

Collaboration is intrinsic to the contemporary work environment. Professionals who excel in teamwork contribute not only to project success but also foster a positive organisational culture. Soft skills related to teamwork include the ability to delegate, support team members, and resolve conflicts constructively.

Adaptability in the Face of Change

In a dynamic business landscape, adaptability is a prized asset. Soft skills such as adaptability and resilience enable individuals to navigate uncertainties, embrace change, and turn challenges into opportunities. Professionals who can pivot seamlessly are better equipped to thrive in evolving industries.

Problem-Solving and Critical Thinking

Soft skills extend beyond interpersonal relationships to encompass problem-solving and critical thinking. The ability to analyse situations, identify solutions, and make informed decisions is invaluable. Professionals who possess these skills become instrumental in driving innovation and overcoming obstacles.

Emotional Intelligence for Effective Leadership

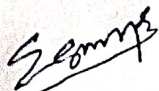

Leadership goes beyond hierarchical titles; it's about influencing others positively. Soft skills like emotional intelligence, self-awareness, and empathy are vital for effective leadership. Leaders, who understand and manage their emotions, as well as those of their team, create a conducive work environment that fosters growth and productivity.

Conclusion

Over the past twenty three weeks I have written a series of posts on Soft Skills: their development, the competencies they represent and the importance soft skills have in the workplace (or life in general, for that matter). I still like the following definition of Soft Skills because it is straight forward and concise: "Soft Skills' is a catch-all term referring to various behaviors that help people work and socialize well with others. In short, they are the good manners and personality traits needed to get along with others and build positive relationships. Unlike hard skills, which include a person's technical skill set and ability to perform certain functional tasks, Soft Skills are broadly

Yoga Training Program

21/07/2017

Objective of report:-

- 1) To enable the student to have good health.
- 2) To practice mental hygiene.
- 3) To possess emotional stability.
- 4) To integrate moral values.
- 5) To attain higher level of consciousness.

Swayam Siddhi Degree College had organized Yoga Training under BMS Department in association with Patanjali Yoga Kendra BWD on 20/07/2017. To make student mentally and physically fit and free from diseases

Attendances: - 250 Students where present during the entire session.

Important things discussed during the session

Yoga is not just about bending or twisting the body and holding the breath. It is a technique to bring you into a state where you see and experience reality simply the way it is. If you enable your energies to become exuberant and ecstatic, your sensory body expands. This enables you to experience the whole universe as a part of yourself, making everything one, this is the union that yoga creates.

The founder of Yoga, Patanjali stated, "Sthiram sukham asanam." It implies that a posture that appears to be firm and agreeable is your asana. You may be astounded to know that an asana is just a preliminary step into the act of yoga. It is a way that encourages you to achieve the greater good. Yoga focusses on idealizing concordance between your mind, body, and soul. When you adjust yourself so everything functions brilliantly within you, you will draw out the best of your capabilities.

Importance of Yoga

The perfect unison can be achieved through Hatha Yoga and its various branches (Ashtanga Yoga, Iyengar Yoga, Bikram Yoga, Yin Yoga, Kundalini Yoga), depending on what you like and the problems you are looking to tackle through the practice.

Some Of The Advantages Of Yoga Are As Follows:

- Improves brain function
- Lower stress levels
- Alters gene expression
- Increases flexibility
- Lowers blood pressure
- Improves lung capacity
- Relieves anxiety
- Relieves chronic back pain
- Lowers blood sugar in diabetics
- Improves sense of balance
- Stronger bones
- Healthy weight
- Lowers risk of heart diseases

Yoga as a practice has innumerable benefits that positively affect an individual both physically and mentally. Whether it is reducing your blood pressure or raising your pain tolerance, listed below are a few things that yoga works on:

- Enhanced Circulation:
Yoga improves your blood circulation. This means better transportation of oxygen and nutrients throughout the body. Improved blood flow also indicates healthier organs and glowing skin.
- Improves Posture:
Yoga teaches how to control and how to balance. With regular practice, your body will automatically assume the right stance. You will look both confident and healthy.

Conclusion

The purpose of Yoga is to create harmony in the physical, vital, mental, psychological and spiritual aspects of the human being. In the foregoing pages of this book, I have described the Technique of relaxation in different postures viz., standing, lying and sitting postures which brings in this harmony. Yoga is not mere practice for an hour or two in a day but it is the most scientific way of living, all the twenty-four hours of the day.

Objective of report:-

- To foster the psychological development of Student.
- To facilitate behavioral change in student
- To increase Students understanding of self and their environment
- To improve Students ability to establish and maintain relationships
- To enhance Students effectiveness and ability to cope with problems.

Swayam Siddhi Degree College had organized Personal Counseling by App. Special Faculty Dr. Rajkumar Shrivastava on 22/07/2017. To make student mentally and physically fit and free from educational and personal stress and challenges

Attendances: - 254 Students where present during the entire session.

Important things discussed during the session

Counseling is known as one of the greatest helping professions on Earth, yet many people remain perplexed about its true meaning, purpose, and intention.

Most likely, the practice of offering counsel to others has always occurred in some fashion within human society. Not only can counseling treat mental health conditions, it can also help individuals, groups, organizations, and society optimize wellbeing. In this article, we further discuss the importance of counseling, with a list of scientifically researched benefits. Millions of people have experienced the benefits of counseling. Counseling is a specific mental health discipline that includes aspects of guidance and psychotherapy.

It focuses on a wellness model aimed at improving the quality of life and involves both the counselor and client in collaboration.

Outcome research measures the effectiveness of counseling interventions and responses to the therapeutic process. Using theory and empirically validated research keeps counselors and the profession accountable and ethical. While experiencing the benefits of counseling is the goal, outcome research allows us to find best practices, evaluate techniques, and optimize counseling approaches for clients.

Psychotherapy and other counseling techniques help individuals explore moods and behaviors, provide fresh perspectives, and offer a better understanding of emotions.

Counseling can provide education and teach skills

Psycho education is the process of explaining mental health conditions, diagnoses, services, and treatment options.

Many people who come to counseling know that they are suffering but understand nothing about the underlying causes, specific conditions, or how certain techniques can address presenting problems.

Counseling can reduce medical costs

There is a direct link between physical and mental health. Often, when individuals treat underlying mental health conditions or receive counseling to help regulate emotions and improve mood, physical health improves as well.

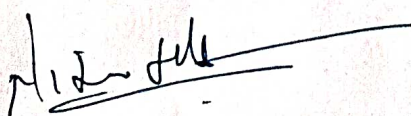

Another form of anxiety: Counseling for OCD

Several theories came forward in the 1940s that explained the fear/anxiety and avoidance of obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), where the fear of a stimulus is avoided to reduce anxiety, and the behavioral avoidance results in repeated compulsive rituals

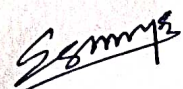

Conclusion

Describe the purpose and nature of counseling the function of personal counseling is to help people to resolve problem areas in their life. Counseling provides an opportunity for the person to explore the difficult feelings, thoughts and behaviors that have blocked the way to satisfying relationships, personal happiness. The purpose of counseling is to help clients achieve their personal goals, and gain greater insight into their lives.

Intensive Coaching

12/10/2017

Objective of report:-

- To help Student to define and achieve their goals and objectives in their career.
- To maximize performance of the student by helping them to reach their peak potential.
- To develop leadership qualities among student and making them more focused
- To create self-discipline and manage their strength and weakness

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had organized Intensive Coaching by Mrs. Nausheen Parker on 12/10/2017. To make student more careers oriented and more focused on the strength and weakness

Attendances: - 36 Students where present during the entire session.

Important things discussed during the session

Intensive Coaching serves a significant purpose in guiding individuals towards personal and professional growth. Its primary objective is to support and empower individuals to unlock their full potential and achieve their goals. Intensive Coaching provides a safe and non-judgmental space for individuals to explore their aspirations, identify obstacles, and develop strategies to overcome them.

It aims to enhance self-awareness, improve decision-making skills, and foster accountability. Whether in the realms of career, relationships, or personal development, coaching helps individuals gain clarity and take intentional actions. Based on my firsthand experience, I can say that it facilitates learning, reflection, and growth. Coaching plays a vital role in helping individuals realize their true capabilities and lead purposeful, fulfilling lives.

The purpose of coaching varies for different types of coaching methods. The different types of coaching methods are executive coaching, integrated coaching, team coaching, and virtual coaching. Though the strategy differs amongst the types of coaching, the general-purpose remains the same i.e., to enhance performance and to unlock a client's complete potential.

The purposes of coaching for different intensive coaching styles are listed below.

Executive intensive coaching is the ultimate tailored leadership development. The types of executive coaching are career coaching, life coaching, organizational/business coaching, performance coaching, and leadership coaching. The primary focus of executive coaching is behavioral change. The aim of executive coaching is to equip clients with the tools of knowledge and opportunities that the clients require to unlock their true potential and become more efficient.

Integrated intensive coaching is an approach that combines coaching sessions and leadership development initiatives. The goal of integrated coaching is to save time and help clients/students become more efficient in a shorter amount of time.

Team coaching is the approach where the team coach empowers a team by building trust amongst team members, envisions a common goal/vision, commits to team accountability, makes bold decisions, creates a productive and positive environment, and takes powerful actions. The purpose of team coaching is to ensure learning for the team as a whole. Team coaching is result-oriented and focuses on the team rather than individuals, unlike other coaching methods.

Virtual coaching is coaching done through web-based video services (video chats). The main advantage of virtual coaching is the flexibility of undertaking sessions when it's the right time for the client.

Conclusion

Effective intensive coaching always focus on the students needs and preferences, not only in terms of subject matter, but also communication. This has become increasingly difficult in our global and often remote environments. Offices are frequently cultural cross-sections, and employees maintain a diverse array of communication and learning preferences. In short, what works for one employee (or for one organization) might not work so well for another. But effective training always seeks a kind of balance that allows for these differences to enhance the group learning process rather than limit it. To do that well, we must abandon the one-size-fits-all training approach

“REMEDIAL COACHING”

06/10/2017

Objective of report:-

- To provide personalized and targeted support, tailoring coaching plans
- To build foundational academic skills and bridge gaps
- To contribute to inclusive education by offering support to students
- To develop confidence and motivation in students, not only improving academic

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had organized a seminar on “REMEDIAL COACHING” by Nausheesn Parker On 06/10/2017 for the student development .organized by our faculties

Attendances: 400 students where present during the entire session.

Subject	No. Of Students
1. Financial Accounting	98
2. Management Accounting	102
3. DIT	97
4. Cost Accounting	103

Important things discussed during the session

- Individualized Approach:

Remedial coaching is highly individualized, recognizing that each student may have unique learning needs and challenges.

Assessments are often conducted to identify specific areas of weakness or gaps in understanding, forming the basis for personalized coaching plans.

- Identification of Learning Gaps:

Diagnostic assessments help identify the specific areas where a student is struggling, whether it be in reading, writing, mathematics, or other subjects.

Understanding the root cause of academic challenges is crucial for tailoring coaching sessions effectively.

- Remedial coaches work with students to create personalized learning plans that target their specific areas of weakness.

The plans may include a mix of targeted exercises, additional practice, and alternative teaching methods to address learning gaps.

- Remedial coaching focuses on building foundational skills that may have been missed or not fully developed.

Emphasis is placed on mastering basic concepts before moving on to more advanced topics.

Coaches use differentiated instructional strategies to adapt teaching methods to suit individual learning styles.

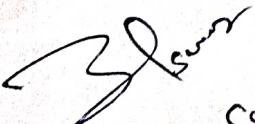

- Regular assessments and progress monitoring are integral to remedial coaching.

Adjustments to coaching plans are made based on the student's progress, ensuring ongoing effectiveness and addressing evolving needs.:

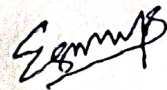

- Remedial coaching aims not only to improve academic skills but also to boost students' confidence and motivation. Positive reinforcement and encouragement play a crucial role in fostering a positive attitude toward learning.

Conclusion of report

- Remedial coaching, with its emphasis on an individualized approach, recognizes the diverse learning needs of students. Through thorough assessments and diagnostic tools, coaches identify specific areas of weakness, allowing for the creation of personalized learning plans. These plans, customized to address each student's unique challenges, provide a roadmap for targeted skill-building and academic improvement.

Remedial coaching is highly individualized, recognizing that each student may have unique learning needs and challenges.

Assessments are often conducted to identify specific areas of weakness or gaps in understanding, forming the basis for personalized coaching plans.

- Identification of Learning Gaps:

Diagnostic assessments help identify the specific areas where a student is struggling, whether it be in reading, writing, mathematics, or other subjects.

Understanding the root cause of academic challenges is crucial for tailoring coaching sessions effectively.

- Customized Learning Plans:

Remedial coaches work with students to create personalized learning plans that target their specific areas of weakness.

The plans may include a mix of targeted exercises, additional practice, and alternative teaching methods to address learning gaps.

- Skill Building:

Remedial coaching focuses on building foundational skills that may have been missed or not fully developed.

Emphasis is placed on mastering basic concepts before moving on to more advanced topics.

- Differentiated Instruction:

Coaches use differentiated instructional strategies to adapt teaching methods to suit individual learning styles.

- Progress Monitoring:

Regular assessments and progress monitoring are integral to remedial coaching.

Adjustments to coaching plans are made based on the student's progress, ensuring ongoing effectiveness and addressing evolving needs.

- Building Confidence and Motivation:

Remedial coaching aims not only to improve academic skills but also to boost students' confidence and motivation. Positive reinforcement and encouragement play a crucial role in fostering a positive attitude toward learning.

Conclusion of report

- In conclusion, remedial coaching serves as a valuable and targeted educational intervention that plays a crucial role in supporting students facing academic challenges. By focusing on personalized, individualized approaches, it addresses specific learning gaps and provides tailored support to enhance academic skills. The key components and strategies associated with remedial coaching underscore its significance in fostering educational success and overall student well-being.
- Remedial coaching, with its emphasis on an individualized approach, recognizes the diverse learning needs of students. Through thorough assessments and diagnostic tools, coaches identify specific areas of weakness, allowing for the creation of personalized learning plans. These plans, customized to address each student's unique challenges, provide a roadmap for targeted skill-building and academic improvement.

8/8/2019

Objective of report:-

- To develops Study Skills and Time Management.
- To Improve Improved Concentration and Focus
- To Enhance study skills.
- To boots confidence and motivation.
- To Promote awareness and understanding

Swayam Siddhi mitra sangh's Degree College had organized a seminar on “English Language Bridge Program” “On 9/8/2019

For the student development .Associated with Edu bridge Pvt Ltd

Attendances: 190 students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session

1. Facilitating Academic Success:

An English language bridge program helps non-native English speakers prepare for academic endeavors in English-speaking institutions. It equips students with the language skills necessary to excel in academic coursework, engage in discussions, and produce written assignments.

2. Enhancing Communication Skills:

Proficiency in English is often a key factor in effective communication. A bridge program focuses on improving listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills, allowing participants to communicate more confidently and accurately in both academic and real-world settings.

3. Boosting Career Opportunities:

In many professional fields, proficiency in English is a valuable asset. An English language bridge program can enhance job prospects by equipping individuals with the language skills required in international workplaces and industries that use English as a primary language.

4. Cultural Integration:

English language bridge programs often include cultural components, helping participants navigate the cultural nuances of English-speaking environments. Understanding cultural context is crucial for effective communication and integration into academic and professional communities.

5. Preventing Language Barriers:

Language barriers can impede the learning process and hinder effective communication. A bridge program addresses these barriers, ensuring that students can fully participate in academic discussions, collaborate with peers, and access learning resources.

6. Building Confidence:

Proficiency in English is closely linked to confidence in expressing oneself. A bridge program provides a supportive environment for learners to practice and improve their language skills, boosting their confidence in both academic and social situations.

7. Preparing for Standardized Tests:

Many English language bridge programs prepare students for standardized English language proficiency tests, such as the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) or IELTS (International English Language Testing System), which are often required for admission to English-speaking institutions.

Conclusion of report

- In conclusion, the English language bridge program emerges as a vital stepping stone for individuals seeking to navigate academic, professional, and social landscapes where English proficiency is imperative. This comprehensive program not only addresses linguistic challenges but also cultivates a holistic skill set essential for success in diverse English-speaking environments.
- Through its focused curriculum, an English language bridge program equips participants with the necessary language skills to excel in academic pursuits. It goes beyond mere language acquisition, fostering proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing—the foundational elements crucial for effective communication and comprehension.

Swayam Siddhi mitra sangh's Degree College had organized a seminar on “Personal counseling” On 01-07-2018 For the student development .Associated with Mr yuraj singh
Attendances: 130 students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session

1. University Counseling Centers:

If you are a student, your university or college may have counseling services available for students. These services are often free or at a reduced cost.

2. Support Groups:

Consider joining support groups where individuals with similar experiences come together to share and support one another. This can be in-person or online.

3. Community Resources:

Reach out to local community resources, such as religious organizations, non-profits, or community centers, as they may provide counseling services or be able to connect you with resources.

4. Insurance Coverage:

Check your health insurance coverage to see if mental health services, including counseling, are covered. If so, inquire about the specific providers and services covered.

5. Academic and Career Success:

Students benefit from counseling services in terms of academic success and career planning. Counselors can assist with study skills, time management, and career exploration, contributing to the individual's overall success.

Conclusion of report

- In conclusion, personal counseling is a vital and transformative process that serves as a cornerstone for individual well-being and growth. By providing a confidential and supportive environment, counseling facilitates self-exploration, emotional healing, and the development of coping strategies. The significance of personal counseling is underscored by its multifaceted impact on mental health, relationships, and overall life satisfaction.
- Through counseling, individuals gain a deeper understanding of themselves, their emotions, and the challenges they face. It offers a space for self-reflection and self-discovery, fostering personal insight and awareness. This increased self-awareness becomes a powerful tool for navigating life's complexities and making informed decisions.

INTENSIVE COACHING

12/10/2017

Objective of report:-

- To help Student to define and achieve their goals and objectives in their career.
- To maximize performance of the student by helping them to reach their peak potential.
- To develop leadership qualities among student and making them more focused
- To create self-discipline and manage their strength and weakness

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had organized Intensive Coaching by Mrs. Nausheen Parker on 12/10/2017. To make student more careers oriented and more focused on the strength and weakness

Attendances: - 36 Students where present during the entire session.

Important things discussed during the session

Intensive Coaching serves a significant purpose in guiding individuals towards personal and professional growth. Its primary objective is to support and empower individuals to unlock their full potential and achieve their goals. Intensive Coaching provides a safe and non-judgmental space for individuals to explore their aspirations, identify obstacles, and develop strategies to overcome them.

It aims to enhance self-awareness, improve decision-making skills, and foster accountability. Whether in the realms of career, relationships, or personal development, coaching helps individuals gain clarity and take intentional actions. Based on my firsthand experience, I can say that it facilitates learning, reflection, and growth. Coaching plays a vital role in helping individuals realize their true capabilities and lead purposeful, fulfilling lives.

The purpose of coaching varies for different types of coaching methods. The different types of coaching methods are executive coaching, integrated coaching, team coaching, and virtual coaching. Though the strategy differs amongst the types of coaching, the general-purpose remains the same i.e., to enhance performance and to unlock a client's complete potential.

The purposes of coaching for different intensive coaching styles are listed below.

Executive intensive coaching is the ultimate tailored leadership development. The types of executive coaching are career coaching, life coaching, organizational/business coaching, performance coaching, and leadership coaching. The primary focus of executive coaching is behavioral change. The aim of executive coaching is to equip clients with the tools of knowledge and opportunities that the clients require to unlock their true potential and become more efficient.

Integrated intensive coaching is an approach that combines coaching sessions and leadership development initiatives. The goal of integrated coaching is to save time and help clients/students become more efficient in a shorter amount of time.

Team coaching is the approach where the team coach empowers a team by building trust amongst team members, envisions a common goal/vision, commits to team accountability, makes bold decisions, creates a productive and positive environment, and takes powerful actions. The purpose of team coaching is to ensure learning for the team as a whole. Team coaching is result-oriented and focuses on the team rather than individuals, unlike other coaching methods.

Virtual coaching is coaching done through web-based video services (video chats). The main advantage of virtual coaching is the flexibility of undertaking sessions when it's the right time for the client.

Conclusion

Effective intensive coaching always focus on the students needs and preferences, not only in terms of subject matter, but also communication. This has become increasingly difficult in our global and often remote environments. Offices are frequently cultural cross-sections, and employees maintain a diverse array of communication and learning preferences. In short, what works for one employee (or for one organization) might not work so well for another. But effective training always seeks a kind of balance that allows for these differences to enhance the group learning process rather than limit it. To do that well, we must abandon the one-size-fits-all training approach.

“English speaking course”

- Objective of report:-
- To develop confidence.
- To help students in examination points of view.
- To Increase Self-Esteem and Confidence.
- To promote enhancing communication skills.

Swayam Siddhi Degree College had organized a seminar on “English speaking course” On 01/07/2018 For the student development with the agency of DIRECTSEEKHO.COM enlighten the students about the update of importance of English.

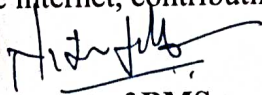

Attendances: -35 students were present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session

- Improved Communication Skills: English courses help students develop effective verbal communication, enabling them to express ideas clearly and confidently.
- Enhanced Vocabulary and Grammar: These courses focus on expanding vocabulary and refining grammar, contributing to better-written and spoken English.
- Increased Confidence: Proficiency in English builds confidence, essential for participating in discussions, presentations, and interviews.
- Academic Success: Strong English skills are crucial for academic success, as students need to comprehend complex texts, write essays, and engage in classroom discussions.
- Global Opportunities: English is widely used internationally, and proficiency in the language opens doors to global educational and professional opportunities.
- Career Advancement: Many employers require strong English skills. A proficiency certificate from an English course can enhance a student's employability.

Conclusion of report

The ability to speak English is a valuable skill with numerous advantages. As a global lingua franca, English serves as a common language for international communication, business, science, technology, and academia. Proficiency in English opens up opportunities for education, career advancement, and cultural exchange. Additionally, it fosters better understanding and collaboration among people from diverse linguistic backgrounds. English proficiency is crucial in today's interconnected world, where many multinational companies use English as their primary language for communication. Moreover, a strong command of English enhances access to a wide range of information and resources available on the internet, contributing to personal and professional development.

Personality Development (Online)

24/04/2021

Objective of report:-

- To enable students look good and presentable but also helps you face the world with a smile
- To educate and develop the student which goes a long way in reducing stress and conflicts
- To encourages students to look at the brighter sides of life
- To motivate students to face even the worst situations with a smile.

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had organized (On-Line) Personality development session conducted by The Faculties of SMBC College on 24/04/2021. For the students for development.

Attendances: - 180 On-line Students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session

What is Personality Development?

Let's understand personality development meaning in easier words. Personality development for students especially is the process of improving your characteristics, such as personality, attitude, and behavior, to stand out from the crowd. Personality development meaning can be linked with a combination of verbal and physical traits.

Personality development definition is often confused with giving tips like dressing up in expensive branded clothes and carrying expensive mobile phones. In this influencer and social media age, personality development definition is equal to being rich and flaunting money which is entirely incorrect.

If you notice your friends, you will find out that each of them has characteristics that set them apart from other classmates. Self-development skills come naturally to some students, while a lot of them need guidance. Every student possesses a combination of positive and negative traits, influencing how they react to other people and events.

When you look at someone for the first time, you form an impression of them. It is called an initial impression that usually doesn't change unless you speak to them. We can call this idea of "physical appearance" simplicity for more clarity. Physical appearance includes-

Key points discussed through On-line Zoom Application

- The way a person dresses up
- Facial Expressions
- Nonverbal actions include hand motions and body language.
- For personality development as a student, you must focus on physical appearance and pay attention to it.

- The way you communicate with everyone.
- Your communication style, mainly with people younger or older than you, people below or above your financial background. For instance, as a student, you should speak to bus drivers with the same respect as you speak to your teachers.
- Communication styles should not differ from one place to another. For instance, there are differences between how you may interact with servers in a small restaurant and seven-star restaurants.
- Consider how someone makes you feel when you first meet them. This is the most significant factor in determining someone's personality. Listening to someone patiently and then responding, being calm, endearing, and positive. When people meet you, do you feel energized and inspired, or do they make you feel depressed?

Conclusion of report

Personality development is important for students because it helps them to tackle daily life situations with ease. We looked at some of the best ways for students to improve their personalities. These tips allow them to build confidence and help them on the path of personal and social development.

Individual differences in personality are universal in that they are found in all human populations. The roots of individual differences are no doubt bedded in evolutionary history, selected because of their improved adaptiveness to conditions in the environment. The specific personality qualities of an individual, which lead to individual differences between people, are not based so much in evolution, however, but are the product of many developmental Factors.

Development (Online program)

12/11/2020

Objective of report:-

- To enable students to face the interview very confidently
- To educate and develop the skills among student which goes a long way in reducing stress during interview
- To encourages students to develop good posture and gesture during interview
- To utilize the COVID Pandemic time in a productive manner.

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had Organized (On-Line) Interview Skill Development Program Guest Speaker Mr. Satish Adhikari from a prestigious intuition named Edubridge Pvt. Ltd. Pvt. on 12/11/2020. For the students for development.

Attendances: - 156 On-line Students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session

Interviewing skills are the emotional and tactical techniques that make job seekers more effective when interviewing for a new position. These skills are important to gain, just like the technical skills and workplace skills you need to perform well in a position.

By developing interviewing skills and practicing them throughout your professional journey, you can feel more confident about any upcoming interview and experience a more fulfilling career.

Continue reading to learn the following interviewing skills (detailed instructions below by the speaker :-

Before the interview:

- Self-preparation
- Research

- Mastering your emotions
- Logistical planning

During the interview:

- Communication
- Introducing yourself
- Presenting your qualifications
- Listening
- Asking questions

After the interview:

- Following up with your interviewer
- Reflecting on your interview and refining your methods

Brushing up on your effective communication skills can help you to establish a rapport with your interviewer. Verbal communication skills include choosing your words carefully and describing your qualifications clearly. Nonverbal communication skills include smiling, nodding, and making eye contact.

Practice good communication in advance by observing your body language in front of a mirror. Ask a friend or family member to do a mock interview with you. During the interview itself, it's okay to speak slowly and deliberately, and even pause to consider how you'd like to answer the interviewer's questions.

Conclusion of report

In this course we have explored the various ways of gathering information by asking people questions. Student has categorized this in different ways: formal interviews and informal conversations; structured, semi-structured and unstructured interviews and, finally, planned and unplanned conversations. In each case we've thought about the benefits and problems of using each of these methods and they've sought to give clues for how to decide between the different types of interview and the skills needed to do each of them successfully.

Attendances: - 180 On-line Students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session

Yoga for Stress Management

Yoga is a type of exercise that focuses on mental & physical health. Yoga can be practiced by anyone. With yoga for stress management, you can achieve peace of mind and relaxation. It has been shown to have many benefits such as improved sleep quality, reduced blood pressure and decreased anxiety levels.

What exactly is Stress?

Simply put, stress is the fight or flight response which you experience when your mind or body reacts to a certain situation that could pose physical, mental, or social discomfort. It can affect your mental stability and your physical fitness.

Stress in the modern world

No one likes being stressed; it's just the way we humans are designed to be. So, it's obvious that just like we feel happy, we feel stressed too.

And it's not only you; almost all of us feel stressed at least once a day. You can be a student who is stressed for his results or a Teacher who is stressed because you have got a lot of copies to check. Stress is a part of our lives, or wait – an 'unlikely' part of our lives.

If you still think its okay to be stressed, hear me out: studies find that long term stress could lead to fatal health problems like heart disease, cancer, lung disease, accidents, cirrhosis of the liver and suicides.

Symptoms of stress:

At the emotional level, the signs of stress may include:

- Feelings of low self-esteem, loneliness and depression
- Trouble relaxing your mind
- Easily frustrated and disturbed with trivial issues
- Avoiding social situations

Physically, stress may bring about:

- Upset stomach
- Aching and tense muscles
- Headaches
- Low energy
- Chest pain and rapid heartbeat
- Insomnia
- Frequent colds and infections
- Nervousness
- Sweaty hands and feet

Conclusion of report

Yoga has an effective role in reducing stress, anxiety, and depression. Thus, it can be used as complementary medicine. In Many ways ut is useful for the student to cop up with mental as well as physical health.

Attendances: -184 On-line Students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session

Presentation Skills encompass the ability to deliver information in a clear, engaging, and persuasive manner. It involves not just the words spoken but also the body language, visual aids, and overall charisma of the presenter. Effective Presentations can captivate audiences, convey ideas convincingly, and leave a lasting impact on listeners. This blog will tell you all you need to know about the Importance of Presentation Skills, and how they can positively influence your life.

Importance of Presentation Skills in personal life & professional life discussed in the session: -Use a structured presentation methodology (Pyramid Method) to prepare presentation material and effective visual aids v Determine and develop personal presentation.

Effective Presentation skills are not limited to professional settings alone; they play a significant role in personal life as well. Let us now dive deeper into the Importance of Presentation Skills in one's personal life:

Expressing ideas clearly

In day-to-day conversations with family, friends, or acquaintances, having good Presentation skills enables you to articulate your thoughts and ideas clearly. Whether you're discussing plans for the weekend or sharing your opinions on a particular topic, being an effective communicator encourages better understanding and engagement.

Enhancing social confidence

Many individuals struggle with social anxiety or nervousness in social gatherings. Mastering Presentation skills helps boost self-confidence, making it easier to navigate social situations with ease. The ability to present yourself confidently and engage others in conversation enhances your social life and opens doors to new relationships.

Handling challenging conversations

Life often presents challenging situations that require delicate communication, such as expressing condolences or resolving conflicts. Strong Presentation skills help you convey your feelings and thoughts sensitively, encouraging effective and empathetic communication during difficult times.

Building stronger relationships

Being a skilled presenter means being a good listener as well. Active listening is a fundamental aspect of effective Presentations, and when applied in personal relationships, it strengthens bonds and builds trust. Empathizing with others and showing genuine interest in their stories and opinions enhances the quality of your relationships.

Advocating for personal goals

Whether you're pursuing personal projects or seeking support for a cause you're passionate about, the ability to present your ideas persuasively helps garner support and enthusiasm from others. This can be beneficial in achieving personal goals and making a positive impact on your community.

Selection Simulation Training

(On-line Session)

21/09/2021

Objective of report:-

- To clarify what is expected of learners and what they need to achieve to complete the training program successfully
- To provide a measurable way to track learners' progress throughout the training program.
- To help to identify any gaps in the training program before you initiate it, instead of after the fact.
- To ensure that learners are focused on the most critical skills and knowledge.

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had organized Selection Simulation Training (On-Line session) through Zoom Application under the department of commerce on 21/09/2021. The speaker of the session was Mr. Rajkumar Shrivastava (Councilor and Advocate, Thane). He had motivated the students in a most innovative ways during the entire session.

Attendances: -170 On-line Students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session with the students by speaker:-

Simulation training provides a virtual environment in which new apps, methods, or tools are introduced in a space that mimics real-life use. Often, simulation training is done digitally, with a virtual environment that mirrors actual work conditions, including background noise, effects, and simulated workspaces.

Employees navigate the new work needs within a simulated space that provides real-world examples and scenarios that offer employees a chance to use newly taught skills. Some simulation training requires employees to choose a specific option; if they do not select the correct choice, they are prompted to try again.

These practical approaches to training enable employees to test out and experiment, understand how systems work, and learn from mistakes without fear of repercussions.

Here are eight top benefits of training simulations in the workplace.

1. Real-Life Experiences

With training simulations, employees gain first-hand knowledge of tools, programs, and devices. Simulations can also go beyond dummy tools or equipment and provide actual sample scenarios, situations, or examples that can be tested. Sometimes, simulation training does not involve new technology, but the advent of new protocols, procedures, or processes that employees must use when interacting with customers, clients, or each other. With experiential learning, employees gain deeper knowledge and insights rather than reading about or watching a PowerPoint presentation.

2. Immediate Feedback

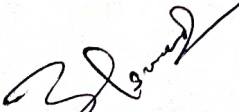

With training simulations, employees can receive immediate feedback about their efficacy and use of the platform, equipment, or guidelines. Instructors can provide constructive criticism in the moment, allow employees to hone their mastery at the time, and retry new skills or approaches. It is best if instructors provide this feedback immediately or soon after training sessions have concluded.

3. Knowledge Retention

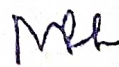

By physically deploying new skills or actions, employees are more likely to retain insights and learned knowledge. Not only will employees retain the theory and broader concepts behind the new processes, they will also be able to apply those principles to practice, further enhancing knowledge retention.

Conclusion of report

Simulation training has disrupted surgical education, replacing outdated methods with risk-free, skill-enhancing practice. Shifting from the "look one, do one, teach one" approach, simulation offers a secure environment to learn and execute surgical procedures. Various models, from animals and cadavers to electronic versions, foster experiential learning and align with established theories.

Interview Skills (Resume Building) Program

17/11/2021

Objective of report:-

- To train students about different ways of writing the Resume
- To inculcate the skills for clearing all sort of interview in the path of their career
- To help the student to Apply the right Interview technique for professional outlook
- To educate the student to understand various difficulties faced by the students during interviews.
- To help student to create leverage on his positive personality traits and work on his negative personality traits

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had organized Interview Skills (Resume Building) Program under the department of BMS on 17/11/2021.

The guest speaker was Mr. Jiten Chandwani (Asst. Prof. Royal College. Thane). He had motivated the students in a most innovative ways during the entire session.

Attendances: -188 Students were present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session with the students by the speaker:-

What Are Interview Skills?

Many people mistakenly believe that interviews are just about repeating what's on your resume. That's far from the truth. In an interview, hiring managers are looking to evaluate your fit as a potential employee by assessing your interview communication skills.

These job interview skills give them an insight into how you'd communicate with your colleagues or clients, how well you'll solve problems, whether you're a critical thinker or not, or even if you listen actively. Here are important interview skills and practices you can adopt to get your dream job.

1. Preparation

Imagine that you're interviewing for the role of a commissioning editor at a publishing house. The first thing the interviewer is bound to ask you is about the last book you read. This is the time you're likely to fumble unless you're prepared to tackle the question.

2. Keep It Conversational

An interview is your chance to showcase your interview communication skills. Think of it as a conversation between yourself and your new supervisor. Think of the interview as a dialogue rather than a monologue on your part. Be natural, make small talk and try to approach it as a conversation. If you appear stiff and formal you will likely not make a good impression.

3. Stay Motivated and Enthusiastic

No interviewer wants to hire someone who doesn't seem excited about the prospect of joining their company. If you've done your research about the organization and role you are applying for, then you most likely will have questions or thoughts about the company's objectives

4. Share Your Story

Through the course of your life, you've collected many stories that show who you are as a person. An important interview skill is the ability to connect the role requirements with your experience—professional or personal. Not only does this give the hiring manager a chance to get to know you but also allows you to become more comfortable with the idea of an interview.

5 Research, and Research Some More

When you go for an interview make sure you know everything you possibly can about the company. Research the industry or field too. For instance, if you want to work in technology, it is a good idea to understand the impact of Artificial Intelligence and how it may affect the technology landscape

Conclusion of report

The resume only gets you the INTERVIEW. The interview gets you the JOB! Therefore, excellent interview skills are essential for job search success. References also play an important part of the interview process. It is also important to be aware of the top skills that employers are looking for in employees. It is an employer market which means that they are looking for more than the total package. Impeccable interview behavior, phenomenal interview answers, most wanted skills in today's labour market are all prerequisites in order to get the JOB.

28/02/2022

Objective of report:-

- To Innovative Presentation Skill among students
- To Educate students about Presentations play and its vital role in educational sector
- To Persuade A presentation's objective is to persuade the audience, particularly in business
- To Inspire and Motivate A presentation's objective is usually to motivate or inspire the audience

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had Organized Innovative Presentation Skill program (On-Line) through Zoom Application under the Department of Commerce on 28/02/2022 in association with American India Foundation. The speaker Miss. Dhanashree Mundhe had motivated the students in a most innovative ways during the entire session.

Attendances: -202 On-line Students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session with the students by speaker:-

What Are Effective Presentation Skills (and How to Improve Them)

At least seven out of 10 Americans agree that presentation skills are essential for a successful career. Although it might be tempting to think that these are skills reserved for people interested in public speaking roles, they're critical in a diverse range of jobs. For example, you might need to brief your supervisor on research results.

Presentation skills are also essential in other scenarios, including working with a team and explaining your thought process, walking clients through project ideas and timelines, and highlighting your strengths and achievements to your manager during performance reviews.

Whatever the scenario, you have very little time to capture your audience's attention and get your point across when presenting information—about three seconds, according to research.

Effective presentation skills help you get your point across and connect with the people you're communicating with, which is why nearly every employer requires them.

Understanding what presentation skills are is only half the battle. Honing your presenting techniques is essential for mastering presentations of all kinds and in all settings.

Effective presentation skills

Imagine yourself in the audience at a TED Talk or sitting with your coworkers at a big meeting held by your employer. What would you be looking for in how they deliver their message? What would make you feel engaged?

Body language

Body language combines various critical elements, including posture, gestures, eye contact, expressions, and position in front of the audience

You'll make presentations at various times in your life. Examples include:

- Making speeches at a wedding, conference, or another event
- Making a toast at a dinner or event
- Explaining projects to a team
- Delivering results and findings to management teams
- Teaching people specific methods or information
- Proposing a vote at community group meetings
- Pitching a new idea or business to potential partners or investors

Conclusion of report

Presentation skills through a Blackboard-mediated intervention program. Learners experienced difficulties in terms of anxiety, learning issues, language competence, and media access the results of this study showed that the learners' levels of fear, learning problems, and access issues decreased during the intervention. Also, the program proved highly effective in improving the EFL participants' presentation skills, and their attitudes and feedback were positive.

Students who master English will have an added advantage if they possess presentation skills and their job opportunities will be greater. Accordingly, this study argues the need to include presentation skills as part of students' course assessment. In addition, technology can play a role in enhancing students' presentation skills; they can utilize technology to record themselves and to review their mistakes, and thus improve their performance.

Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College had Organized Time Management & Productivity (On-Line session) through Zoom Application under the department of commerce on 04/01/2022 .In association with American India Foundation. The speaker Dr.Ashish Muley. He had motivated the students in a most innovative ways during the entire session.

Attendances: -190 On-line Students where present during the entire session

Important things discussed during the session with the students by speaker:-

The Importance of Time Management

Time Management plays a vital role in various aspects of life, from personal to professional. Effectively managing time is crucial for maximizing productivity, reducing stress levels, achieving goals, maintaining a healthy work-life balance, and promoting personal growth. This blog section will describe the Importance of Time Management.

1) Increased productivity: Time Management allows individuals to prioritise tasks and allocate their time efficiently. By focusing on high-priority activities, individuals can make the most of their productive hours, accomplish more in less time, and achieve better results. Effective Time Management prevents wasting time on non-essential tasks or getting overwhelmed by a heavy workload.

2) Reduced stress levels: Poor Time Management often leads to increased stress levels. Procrastination can be avoided, as well as missed deadlines, and last-minute rushes, which create unnecessary pressure and anxiety. By effectively managing time, individuals can plan and organise their tasks, stay ahead of deadlines, and approach their responsibilities with a calmer and more composed mindset. Reduced stress levels contribute to better mental and emotional well-being.

3) Improved decision-making: Time Management allows individuals to allocate sufficient time for critical thinking and decision-making. Rushed and impulsive decisions can lead to negative consequences. With effective Time Management, individuals have the space to evaluate options, weigh pros and cons, gather information, and make informed decisions. This applies to both personal and professional choices.

4) Enhanced goal achievement: Time Management is instrumental in setting and achieving goals. By breaking down larger goals into smaller, manageable tasks, individuals can create a roadmap for success. Effective Time Management helps allocate dedicated time slots for specific tasks, ensuring steady progress towards the desired outcome. Regular progress boosts motivation and creates a sense of accomplishment as goals are achieved step by step.

5) Healthy work-life balance: Time Management is essential for maintaining a healthy balance between work and personal life. Without proper Time Management, work can encroach on personal time, leading to burnout and strained relationships. By allocating time for work-related tasks as well as personal activities, hobbies, and self-care, individuals can nurture a balanced lifestyle, improving overall well-being and satisfaction.

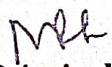

6) Increased effectiveness: Time Management allows individuals to identify and eliminate time-wasting activities or unnecessary distractions. Individuals can work more efficiently and effectively by organising tasks and streamlining processes. Prioritising tasks, setting deadlines, and managing resources optimally contribute to improved efficiency in completing tasks and achieving desired outcomes.

Conclusion of report

All in all, mastering Time Management is a skill that can transform your personal and professional life. By recognizing the Importance of Time Management, understanding its benefits, and implementing practical strategies, you can unlock your full potential, achieve your goals, and lead a more balanced and fulfilling life. Remember, time is a finite resource, so make every moment count by managing it effectively. Embrace the power of Time Management, and watch as your productivity, satisfaction, and overall well-being soar.

REPORT ON

YOGASANA (YOGA)

Date: 19th July 2022

Presenter: Ms. Adhisha From Yogadhisha Training Centre

Attendance: 182 Students

Introduction: On the 19th of July 2022, Swayam Siddhi Degree College organized a yoga session for its students. The session was conducted by Ms. Adhisha, a seasoned yoga instructor from the renowned Yogadhisha Training Centre. The event aimed to promote holistic well-being and provide students with the tools for managing stress and maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

Event Details: The yoga session took place in the college auditorium, creating a serene and conducive environment for the practice of yoga. The event commenced at 10:00 AM and lasted for two hours. A total of 182 students from various academic disciplines actively participated in the session.

Session Highlights: Ms. Adhisha began the session with a brief introduction to yoga, emphasizing its physical, mental, and spiritual benefits. The session included a series of yoga asanas (postures), pranayama (breathing exercises), and meditation techniques.

The yoga postures were carefully selected to cater to individuals of varying fitness levels, ensuring that both beginners and experienced practitioners could benefit. Ms. Adhisha provided clear instructions, demonstrating each posture with precision and offering modifications when needed.

The pranayama exercises focused on mindful breathing, helping students enhance their respiratory capacity and reduce stress. The meditation segment aimed at promoting mental calmness and improving concentration.

Ms. Adhisha also shared insights on the importance of incorporating yoga into daily routines, especially for students facing academic pressures. She emphasized that yoga serves as a powerful tool for stress management, improving overall well-being and fostering a positive outlook on life.

Participant Feedback: Post-session feedback was overwhelmingly positive. Participants expressed a sense of relaxation, increased awareness, and improved physical flexibility. Many students appreciated Ms. Adhisha's guidance and found the session beneficial in coping with the challenges of academic life.

Conclusion: The yoga session at Swayam Siddhi Degree College, conducted by Ms. Adhisha from Yogadhisha Training Centre, proved to be a successful and enriching experience. The event not only contributed to the physical and mental well-being of the participants but also highlighted the significance of incorporating yoga into a busy student lifestyle.

The college administration extends its gratitude to Ms. Adhisha for her expertise and engaging presentation. Such initiatives align with the college's commitment to the holistic development of its students, and future events of this nature are eagerly anticipated.

Financial Literacy and Money Management

- NUMBER OF STUDENT PARTICIPANTS: (177)
- IN ASSOCIATION WITH: “ Bajaj Finserv Ltd ”

INTRODUCTION:

Financial literacy is a vital skill in today's dynamic world. Recognizing its significance, Swayam Siddhi Mirta Sangh's Degree College, in association with Bajaj Finserv Ltd, organized an insightful event on Financial Literacy and Money Management on the 22nd of February 2023. The event aimed to equip the participating students with the knowledge and skills necessary to make informed financial decisions.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS:

Inauguration: The event commenced with a grand inauguration ceremony. Distinguished speakers from both academia and Bajaj Finserv Ltd graced the occasion, emphasizing the importance of financial literacy in shaping a secure future.

Workshops and Sessions: The heart of the event was the series of workshops and interactive sessions conducted by financial experts. These sessions covered a wide array of topics, including budgeting, investment strategies, debt management, and understanding financial markets. The students actively participated, asking questions and sharing their experiences.

Role of Bajaj Finserv Ltd: Bajaj Finserv Ltd played a crucial role in facilitating the workshops. Their seasoned financial professionals shared practical insights and real-life scenarios, making the sessions more relatable for the participants. The collaboration added a practical dimension to the theoretical knowledge shared during the event.

Panel Discussion: A highlight of the day was a panel discussion featuring experts from the financial industry. They discussed contemporary financial challenges, emerging trends, and the role of financial institutions in promoting financial literacy. The discussion provided a holistic view of the financial landscape.

Interactive Games and Quizzes: To make learning engaging, interactive games and quizzes were organized. These activities not only tested the participants' understanding but also added an element of fun to the learning process.

Certificates and Recognition: At the end of the event, participants were awarded certificates of participation. Outstanding performers in the quizzes and activities were also recognized, encouraging healthy competition and motivation for continuous learning.

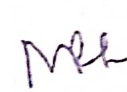

CONCLUSION:

The Financial Literacy and Money Management event organized by Swayam Siddhi Mitra Sangh's Degree College, in collaboration with Bajaj Finserv Ltd, was a resounding success. The 177 student participants gained valuable insights into managing their finances responsibly. The collaboration with Bajaj Finserv Ltd added practical industry expertise to the academic knowledge, making the event comprehensive and impactful.

The college is committed to continuing such initiatives to empower students with essential life skills and contribute to building a financially literate and responsible society.
